

2006 CABERNET SAUVIGNON, ESTATE RESERVE

The grapes destined for this wine were sourced from Audelssa's own Mountain Terraces Vineyard, located on the Sonoma side of Mount Veeder at elevations ranging from 600 to 1800 feet above sea level. The variety of volcanic soils combined with southwestern exposure result in extraordinary growing conditions for Cabernet Sauvignon.

This wine is all about texture, silky and supple, with uncommon purity and depth. It is unquestionably the most seductive Cab Reserve that we have released to date.

Enjoy this wine now, or watch it develop over the next 12-15 years.
